Transition House Donations

Brad Norton and Rich Freeman presented a donation of bedding and $400 in food vouchers to residents at the Grand Island VA Transition Assistance Home on March 4th. Donation to these homeless veterans is made possible with an Elk's Freedom Grant received in September. Accepting the food vouchers from the ER for two absent residents is resident Al Weidner. Behind them are two of the four newest residents, Gordon Bell and Bob Erickson. Additionally, Jackie Norris donated from her daughter, a set of pots and pans and five place settings of dishes for residents to take with them when they leave. Lynn Folcik also donated several large bags of items she helped gather from members of St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Hastings. Included were personal care items, paper towels, storage bags, baking supplies, toasters, trash bags, cleaning supplies and toilet paper.
