Keep an eye on our calendar for upcoming events and please take advantage of our Friday night candle lit dining or just come out to play cards.

As we close the chapter on 2013, let's look ahead to 2014 with renewed commitment to the great works we do as Elks. As we head towards the close of the Lodge year, I welcome your proposals for Elk and Citizen of the year. Please provide supporting examples of the great works making these individuals deserving of this award.

In addition, we will also be taking nominations for next year's officers. Please consider getting more involved in our Lodge by taking a leadership role and volunteer to be an officer.

Our first meeting in February will be run by the PERs, so if you can attend or prefer a specific position, please contact Jim Horsham. We will also be accepting nominations for new officers at this meeting which remains open until we vote at the second meeting in February. Tiler and 5 year Trustee positions will be open and the new ER will be looking for volunteers to fill the positions of Inner Guard, Chaplain and Esquire.

Hold your head high, take a deep breathe, be thankful for all your freedoms and offer a prayer for those who are securing them for us as we begin 2014.
