Volunteer Needed to help with picking up range balls
Don Runcie has been taking care of this job on his own so far this summer, but he could use some help! Please contact the Clubhouse or a Trustee if you can help Don!

2012 Women's Open

Nancy Horsham (L) and Nancy Beekman load up the cart and check bags before the start of the Women's Open June 16th.

The Women's Open on June 16th was once again a huge success. Organizer Marcia Klein wants to pass along a big "Thank You" to the volunteers and donors -- individuals and companies in town that provided prizes.

The Women's Open attracted 76 lady golfers from the area, including several teamw from towns outside of Hastings.

This even is quickly becoming one of the "crown jewels" of our summer golfing calendar.

As has been the case throughout the 2012 season, the course was in excellent shape for the tournament, and the competition was top-notch.

The Elks Country Club looks forward to adding more of these fun events that not only give our members a chance to play, but also introduce our course to golfers who may not know us yet.

Carrying on a fun Women's Open tradition, Mike Bogan, Dale Grothen and Scott Yackley (Left to Right) were among the men who launched drives on Hole #4 for the women golfing in the tournament. The Women's Open has become one of the summer's fastest-growing events.
