The Hastings Elk's officers placed third in the State Ritual Competition during the State Convention 25-27 April 2014. Lodge members attending the competition said it was extremely impressive and by far our best effort to date. I want to thank all of my officers for taking valuable time out of their busy schedules to practice. Congratulations to Anita Storehalder, posting the best individual score on the team with a 93.15 to get us into third place. Way to go Anita!

During the State Convention, the State Army of Hope, presented an "American Flag" quilt by Bob and Suz Clinkenbeard, to raffle off as a fundraiser for the State Army of Hope. Tickets can be purchased from Brad Norton, State Army of Hope Chairman, 6 for $5 and the winning ticket will be drawn on Wednesday, 16 July, at the Elk's National Convention in New Orleans. The quilt will be shipped to the lucky winner.

Hastings Elk's Lodge had a magnificent showing during the past State Spring Convention in North Platte. The Lodge earned second place in Nebraska in the All-American Lodge Competition. During the banquet on Saturday night Hastings members were presented several individual awards. Dick Freeling is our new State Elk of the Year, Rich Freeman was named the Veteran's Volunteer of the Year, and Brad Norton received the John Brooks Heart of Elkdom Memorial Award from Lincoln Lodge #80. Hats off to you all for your outstanding demonstration that "Elks Live, Elks Give." If you see them roaming the ground get them a pat on the back!

On Sunday during the State Convention, Brad Norton was appointed as the Nebraska Elks Association State Chaplain for 2014-15 by State President, Gary Krajewski.
