

Does Corner

by Pat DuBois, President

Coming up on Tuesday, September 17th, it's Fall Back to Does. Drove #112 will be Honoring 5 Year Officers. Janet Schawang, Shirley Murphy, and Marie Ochsner will be your trio-hostess.

We're looking forward to seeing everyone, so please come out to celebrate with the officers and applaud their individual accomplishments.

Central Nebraska District Does Meeting is Friday, October 18th and Saturday, October 19th. Grand Island. Drove #147 will be hosting at the Grand Island Elks Club on South Locust Street.

Supreme President Esther Fister-Palmer has appointed #112 Elks Rest for the Friday Night on the 18th. We really need help filling the chairs for that evening! Any volunteers? Please call me leave your message, Please. 402 463 3244.

Have Fun, enjoy your Fall Days,

Pat DuBois

VETERANS ACTIVITIES

by Rich Freeman, Vets Chair

September is a fairly quiet month for Veterans Activities. Just a reminder that Sandwich Day at the Grand Island VA Medical Center is scheduled for Monday, September 16th. Anyone interested in helping out should arrive by 10:30 at the 2nd floor recreation room. All help will be greatly appreciated. THANK YOU!

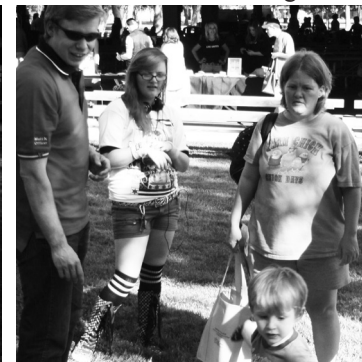

Youth Activities

by Jackie Norris PER, Youth Chair

On Tuesday, August 6th, our Lodge participated in National Night Out at Chataqua Park in Hastings. We gave away over 250 Drug Awareness pencils, rulers and book-marks to the children passing by our booth. The big hit of the booth was our Bean Bag Toss game, which brought kids from 2-14 years old. Everyone who played received a Frisbee with an Elks logo on it. Thanks to all the volunteers who helped set up, visit with the kids and parents, hand out items and watch over the game!

Elks Volunteers at National Night Out (L to R): John Folcik, Jim Horsham, Dale Grothen, Jackie Norris, Joe Thompson and Brad Norton. Not pictured: Matt Norton, Don Runcie, Butch Lyons.

Leading Knight, Matt Norton, and family members watch as a young phenom takes aim in the Bean Bag Toss at National Night Out.
